

Meyers invites you to share the tale of the perils of a young solicitor as the Bootmakers consider

THE ADVENTURE OF THE NORWOOD BUILDER

Featuring

- A scholarly introduction to the story
- Music from “A Duet with An Occasional Chorus”
- Hartley Nathan on “Doctor Mortimer's Penang Lawyer ”
- A Karen Campbell story discussion session
- Another challenge from The Quizzards
- Nourishment from Mrs. Hudson
- Additional treats for the mind and eye.

Formalities will get under way at the Toronto Reference Library SATURDAY, April 24, 2010 at seven o'clock in the evening, but it would be pleasant to see you at 6:30 for social time with fellow Sherlockians.

There is a modest charge of $10 in advance, or $12 should you arrive unannounced. To reserve, send your cheque to Doug Wrigglesworth, 16 Sunset Street, Holland Landing, ON L9N 1H4. The ten dollar reservation can also be made by e-mailing your intention to Mr. Meyers at doug.wrig@sympatico.ca and you will then pay the ten dollars at the door.

Dear Mr. Meyers: Yes, I will join you on April 24 and I enclose a cheque payable to The Bootmakers of Toronto for $_____ for the following persons:

_____

_____

